

Teen Times

As has been customary about this time every year, we've been conducting an informal poll as to what local girls and boys would most like to find in their stockings Christmas morning. Of course, we got the usual list of air-conditioned Cadillacs, milk shakes, trips to Paris, diamond bracelets and the like and undoubtedly there are a few who'll get at least one of the above mentioned, but on the whole THE gift will be something more like a hi fi or stereo, transistor radio and of course for seniors class rings rate top priority—clothing is as always popular and a number of girls have asked for hair dryers; wig hats are also much in demand (must comment we're highly in favor of the two last mentioned—maybe if enough young ladies have dryers of their own they'll stop running all over creation in those monstrous curlers and perhaps wig hats will satisfy the desire to alter the color of their hair!) Boys are asking for clothing, watches, guns, fishing equipment, luggage and of course the auto bugs are 'ape' about any accessories for their vehicles. . . now let's get a little more specific and see what some are getting as number one gift this Yule—

We're having to give those questioned about a week to decide what they really want most—just about everyone quizzed scratched their heads saying they hadn't quite decided—so this feature is to be continued.

Mary Lou Herthly is singing a brand new song titled "Who's Sorry Now?" (Mr. Sorry??) Caroline Zeigler is also partial to a certain tune—could she be thinking about Jordan Bradford when she plays the record "Please Come Home for Christmas?"

Congratulations are in order for Vivienne Korse who recently received her 12th grade diploma from night school in New Orleans—Vivienne still loves her job at Kreger's.

Barbara Rennie of New Orleans spent the weekend in Waveland.

Basketball season is in full swing and Bay High boys are the only local team as yet undefeated. The Tigerettes haven't been as fortunate having been beaten by a scant margin in each of their encounters. St. Joseph's Gold Jays won their first game in the Poplarville tournament last week, but lost out in the second round. Stanislaus also went down to Picayune 49-48 in an exciting overtime game. North Central, picked by Chris Bell to win state honors (and this isn't too impressive considering his prognostications regarding the Bay High-Ocean Springs gridiron contest) also lost a tough one to Harrison Central.

Bay High grads continue winning honors in college—Freda Perniciaro was selected as friendliest girl in voting in PRC's Who's Who contest. Woody Alliston not only was best all round, he was also on the list of college beaux and Bill Jennings was adjudged to have best school spirit!

Teddo Thomas' football progress is a paying off in a big way—he signed a contract to play with the Tigers of LSU next year.

The Tiger team was honored at their annual banquet last Thursday night—it was quite an affair with letters, awards and honorable mentions being presented to the chosen ones.

We'll welcome Darrell O'Donnell back to Waveland—when the O'Donnells moved to New Orleans a couple of years ago, he was too young for the column then, but if our calculations are correct he should be 13 just about now.

The arrival of the General Friday created quite a stir—apparently the entire student body of St. Joseph toured the historic train—among those milling around at the depot were Aggie Bourgeois, Mary Lou Herthly, Mary Beth Lacher, Allison Trellis, Jo Ann Smith, Ellen Colson, Timell Backlund, Carolyn Zeigler, Linda Munch, etc., etc.

Their local friends will be happy to hear that Tiger, Rhet

City Echoes

Henry Ous returned Monday from Orlando, Fla., where he went to drive his aunt, Miss Ethel Ous who has been with relatives in Loxtown, to spend the winter months.

Mrs. Gary F. Wheatley left today for Europe where she will join her husband, Lt. (j.g.) Wheatley, USN, for the holiday season, returning to the Bay about Jan. 15. The Wheatleys' infant son will remain with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Mitchell.

Mrs. Hoyt Williams, who recently moved to New Orleans, returned to visit friends in Bay St. Louis Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cox, who formerly made their home on Paradise Court, have moved to a new residence on St. Jude Street in Waveland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Blair leave Dec. 26, for Mexico where they will spend six months.

Ernest Spence is a patient in Hancock General Hospital where he is recuperating from injuries sustained in an automobile accident last Thursday night.

Maj. and Mrs. J. H. Pepperdene have been spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pepperdene, en route to his post with the Transportation Corps in Monterey, Calif., after a stay in New York where Major Pepperdene was taken ill.

First Lt. Charles J. Bous, Jr., is now post motor transport officer, Ft. Chaffee, Ark., in charge of the 250 vehicles in the pool. Lt. Bous was with the 134th Transportation Co., Bay St. Louis, when it was ordered to active duty last year, and has been operations officer for the and Allen Glass are due to arrive around Dec. 23 for a holiday visit.

Dennis Souzanna to the last out to acquire a compact car all her very own.

Susan Arnold is now officially a Teen Times having celebrated her 15th birthday Saturday Dec. 8. She was feted at a party by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson.

Janet Trappant, Ronnie Ardugas and J. E. Loiscano were among college students returning home last weekend.

Mary Elizabeth Lagarde is another to be welcomed to Teen Times—she was 13 last Thursday, Dec. 6. Her older brother Frank, Jr., will be 14 on Dec. 30, so we'll send a double happy birthday greeting to them.

LAKE SHORE LOG

BY MRS. MALCOLM GREEN

NO 7-5814

Woods fires caused considerable concern over the weekend. The home of Harry Thomas, just off the blacktop road, was saved Thursday night by the efforts of Arvine Garcia, Edwidge Garcia Ray Garcia, Ray Wheelan and Malcolm who fought it back by hand. Ed Green came with his tractor and plowed a furrow wide enough to keep the fire from the house. Mr. Thomas is blind in one eye, losing the sight of his other and lives alone. Sunday afternoon another carelessly started blaze roared from the back of Pearl's Gift Shop, down to Mrs. Victoria Lopez's home, then through Devil's Swamp toward the Cox Rainwater tree farms. Once again the above mentioned came to the rescue, aided by the outfit from the Rocky Hill Fire tower, a tractor from Tennessee Gas Co., Bob Wheelan and son Irvin Green. Fortunately there were no injuries and the houses were saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCord have the nicest Christmas gift ever. Their son, Tommy, is home for good, having finished his enlistment in Uncle Sam's Army.

I'd like to wish Miss Linda Fricke a very happy 13th birthday Dec. 11.

Congratulations to Gulfview girls basketball team. They defeated Harrison Central girls Friday night in the tourney at Logtown.

Don't forget the big benefit this coming Sunday at the Clermont Youth Center to help keep up the buses that transport the Catholic children to the parochial schools they attend. Sponsors of this affair would especially like to see a good turnout from Pearlington, Lakeshore, U. S. 90 and the Bay area. Your support is appreciated.

Good deeds should be mentioned. I think. The trees cut down in back of the Catholic Church were hauled to the Whitfield wood yard by David Stoufflet's pulpwood truck. Gordon Garcia and his son-in-law, Emmett Lusich, cut the trees, also donating their share to the building fund.

Uncle Lacy Green came down for a short visit, and brought such delicious hot head cheese. He is really a master in making this delicacy, and could go into business, if he could take the time off from hunting and fishing.

Congratulations to Miss Heverly Schindler and Frank Lader who will be married Dec. 22 at 11 a.m. in Our Lady of the Gulf Church.

Miss Schindler is a grand daughter of Ed Green, one of Lakeshore's senior citizens.

Our deepest sympathy to Herman Mazarakis who lost his father last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weathers have sold their home on the highway to professor and Mrs. Miller, who also purchased Hendrix Motel next door and now call it the Texas Motel.

The Weathers have rearranged their place on Coleman Avenue and are once again dispensing coffee and delicious sandwiches next to their laundryette.

Gulfview School Co-op Club met Monday evening and discussed the need for a public address system and a movie sound projector to show educational films. Russell Elliott donated a PA system and Ed Orte offered use of his movie projector as long as the school needed it. Plans for the children's Yule party were discussed.

The fish fry for the North Central varsity football squad was tastefully prepared by Messames Milton Stoufflet, Ed Orte, Oren Seal, Russell Elliott, and Miss Diane Stoufflet. Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Penton, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Mills, basketball coach at North Central, Earl Lee, head football coach and Billy Floyd Seal, assistant football coach. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Seal, The affair was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Orte.

The Clermont-Lakeshore Youth Center will have its annual Yule party for the children Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. School buses will transport the Gulfview children to the party and back.

Gulfview girls and boys will play home games Wednesday night. Their opponents will be North Central. On Monday the two teams go to Pass Christian to play Deltasta.

With the birth of our Lord not too far off why not look around and see if you do not have a needy family near you. Little children of such a family do not understand why Santa comes to them by, especially when they have been good.

The warm feeling you will get from sharing with one less fortunate than you, will more than compensate you for the cost and the little time and effort put into such a good deed.

Parish altar group installs new officers

Mrs. M. J. Phillips, jr., president; Mrs. E. P. Laroche, vice-president; Mrs. C. R. Beyer, secretary, and Mrs. Harold Powell, treasurer, were installed as new officers of the Altar and Blessed Sacrament Society of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish last Thursday at the Parish Hall. Miss Stella Gex expressed gratitude to all who helped make the annual turkey dinner a success. Mrs. Alden Mauffray announced that religious articles sold by the society will be on display after masses. It was also reported that 21 amices completed by Mrs. James Taconi are now in use.

Mrs. Harry Hinkkanen, a new comer to Bay St. Louis, was introduced. Msgr. James Hannon closed the meeting with a prayer and coffee was served.

For the state

Over the weekend it looked like the Mississippi Legislature might finally adopt a reapportionment plan for submission to the voters that stood a chance of receiving court approval unless Chancellor W.T. Hooten or some subsequent official followed the special district court which recently ruled Virginia's redistricting plan unconstitutional.

As of this writing such hope must be held in abeyance even though Tuesday the senate reversed its vote on Monday and approved the conference recommendation with very slight changes. The house just couldn't go along. Representatives from those counties losing legislative strength, joined by a few who apparently objected on technical grounds, still blocked passage.

In our opinion this latest proposal is superior to any so far seriously suggested and not because it improved Hancock County's position though no change in it did slightly. Under all plans Hancock County has come out about the same, primarily because we have been having just about our due, although Chancellor Hooten's amended ideas pose some real legal objections.

But what concerns us here is not the effect on Hancock County, but the stupid, selfish, dog in the manger approach of many of our small county, pinheaded representatives. Out of their own mouths they have convicted themselves of our strong assertions.

For instance: not once has one of this group objected to any reasonable proposal on grounds even distantly connected with the basic issue which is simply fair apportionment of voting strength among Mississippians. Their screamingly vocal complaints that a shift in voting strength in the legislature will cause the repeal of enactment of this law or that, from hems-and-hawed exceptions to prohibition, has nothing to do with fair apportionment and indicates their own belief that the law they favor is not favored by most Mississippians.

We could take some pleasure in the confidence that these short-sighted ones will undoubtedly get even less voice in our state government if the courts reapportion the state, but believe with Rep. Thompson McClellan of Clay, whose county would lose under the defeated proposal, that "The question is... whether we are going to reapportion ourselves. The time has come when some of us must forget our local positions. We must act for the state."

Good man, Col. MIM

Although the idea was hatched by Mr. Henry Harris, West Point editor and Mississippi booster, the Colonel MIM (Money in Mississippi) program has been carried forward and spread by members of the Jackson Chamber of Commerce. Yesterday Mr. Leland Speed, representing this group, spoke here to the Rotary Club concerning what effectuating this program could mean to Mississippi and to Hancock County.

The creed of Colonel MIM is simple: if possible, buy at home, then try your county, then adjacent counties and if possible at least spend your money in Mississippi. But the program's possible effect might be startling.

For instance according to a study made of 1958 spending Mississippians, according to Mr. Speed, spent enough outside the state that had one-half been spent here the sales tax there would have paid the cost of public education. This, however, would be only the beginning, since each dollar would pass over several times, increasing the tax return to the state while helping to line the pockets of local people.

Figures cited by Mr. Speed taken from Sales Management show that while Hancock County had an estimated spendable income of $16,700,000 in 1961 only $6,800,000 or 38 per cent, was spent here. The state-wide percentage is 68 and while much of the difference must be attributed to our proximity to New Orleans and the many here who work in New Orleans, it does not change the fact that we could spend much more locally.

Some things we cannot buy here or even, feasibly, in Mississippi, or Louisiana can be people in Jackson buy everything they want in Jackson or in Mississippi, and perhaps that is just as well, but that does not detract from the economic advantage for all of us if more of our own money is kept here to spend in Mississippi. The Colonel MIM program is a state level version of the Echo's oft repeated advice to "buy locally, where your dollars can come home."

According to our calendar it's still a week until winter, but we don't believe it.

Through eyes of others

OUT ON A LIMB By Mel DeCott

As I write this, the legislature, meeting in a special session, seems so close to passing a legislative reapportionment measure than they were before they even got to Jackson. Several different plans have been introduced, but none have as yet achieved the necessary two-thirds vote.

Incidentally, I had a question put to me the other day as to what actual results a reapportioned legislature will have on the individual. It intrigued me, because it was the first time I had heard anyone express concern or interest in the probabilities of practical effects of reapportionment.

The usual phrase you hear bandied about is that reapportionment will "shift the balance of power in the legislature from the rural voter to the city, or urban voter." But most people stop there instead of dwelling further into the possibilities of what the "shift of balance of power" can mean in the future.

From where I sit, it can and, in all likelihood, will have several direct effects upon the individual. It would surprise me little to see a reapportioned legislature reconstitute the gasoline tax revenue so as to throw a much larger share to the big counties and cities. This will, of course, have a direct effect on the road programs in rural counties.

Why do I think such a redistribution will be brought about? Well, if you will think back with me to the last legislative redistribution of the gasoline tax, you will remember how incensed the opposition was to the adoption of the formula giving the rural counties the share they now have. The heat of that opposition on the part of the city legislators has not diminished one bit.

Other predictable legislative ramifications to reapportionment? Well, it's no secret that the money pinch is going to be tighter than ever on the state level in the near future. Which will, of course, necessitate new tax measures. And when this comes up in a reapportioned legislature, my personal bet would be that tax exemptions currently enjoyed by farmers will be among the first to go before any new taxes are levied.

What exemptions? For a starter, you might consider the sales tax exemption on feeds and fertilizers and farm machinery. It has been the dominant power of the rural counties in the past which has maintained these exemptions intact. Shift that power dominance to the cities and I think you will find that the tax exemption story is going to be vastly different.

I differ from some observers in that I do not believe a reapportioned legislature will effect the Homestead Exemption law. While the word "homestead" may have a rural connotation, the exemption is enjoyed so much in the cities as in the countryside.

The political significance of reapportionment? Well, there are those observers who say that it will change the entire psychological climate of the legislature for the better. I rather doubt it.

As far as I'm concerned, it is a demonstrable fact that some of the most idiotic, lame and irresponsible legislation in the state are among those enacted from some of our metropolitan centers.

In view of all of this, can I in favor of reapportionment? Yes, I can. But I can in favor of it with my eyes open and knowing full well the probable costs of being fair.

APPORTIONMENT APPROACH

It is important for residents of Lynchburg, the urban citizens who are supposed to be victims of "invidious discrimination," to understand some of the more fundamental questions at issue when federal courts intrude in reapportionment disputes. At stake is the basic doctrine of separation of powers.

One does not have to defend Virginia's present apportionment plan, although it ranks eighth in the nation under the population criterion, to oppose it. The plan is a product of the courts, not of the legislature. The courts have no business meddling in the legislature. One does not have to be a "conservative" to oppose the method which "threw" members of the General Assembly here and there in an attempt to increase the size of their service.

Once federal courts decided that the apportionment of seats for the House of Representatives was a "political question," it was left entirely to the federal courts to decide the individual apportionment. This apportionment, which is so "invidiously discriminatory" to rural counties, was decided in New York in a case decided in August, 1962.

FACTS ON THE COUNTY'S PROBS

New supervisor gets economics lesson

Newly elected Board 1 Supervisor, H. G. (Bugs) Dean, learned about the county's financial straits last week when he moved to Mrs. Charles Ram, Jr., to learn the answers to questions prospective supervisors to the county might ask and be available at her home on Route 604.

North Central P-TA sees home of work

Parent-Teacher Assn. of Hancock North Central School toured the home economics department under the direction of Mrs. Cornelius Favre after its business meeting Dec. 10.

On display were many items of clothing, toys, and Christmas decorations and cookies made by home ec students. Vegetables grown in the community were also shown. The new completely automatic sewing machine was of great interest to all the mothers. Refreshments which had been prepared by the students were served in the parlor of the department.

U. S. 90 to give the residents and to promote the county. Before the financial side became paramount Dean explained that he frequently had people moving in or who might settle in the county ask him about such things as whether public transportation to schools was available from such and such a place. He said he tried to help but he didn't always know the answer and he didn't have the time for this sort of thing.

Board President R. H. Hubbard pointed out that the Chamber of Commerce did a lot along this line and asked Dean how much he proposed to pay Mrs. Ram to which Dean replied, "Can we afford $200 a month?"

Hubbard: "We can't afford anything. Look at the general fund balance."

Dean: "I know that's low, but can't we transfer some money to it?"

Hubbard: "The budget and millage have been set. We can't do anything about that now. Maybe we'll have some money later in the advertising fund, but I doubt if it can be used for that purpose. You can check with the auditor in the next room. He should be able to tell you whether it can be used to pay salaries."

Dean, after talking to the auditor: "He said he wasn't certain and we should ask the attorney general. Maybe Mr. Gex Election ...

local residents on weekends. Board attorney Luten M. Gex noted that the supervisors already have legislated on improper dumping and established a $25 fine for offenders. "Now it's the responsibility of the law enforcement branch," he declared.

R. G. Hubbard, Jr., Board 5 supervisor, reported continued efforts to clean up the dumps. He opined that children and New Orleansians over for the weekend are responsible for most of the fires since they have no realization of the damage forest fires can cause.

Supervisors indicated concourse with a request by Sheriff Gerald V. Price to allow time off for a Negro prisoner, Maurice Burton of Pearlinton, who Price said went beyond the call of duty in assisting with care of another prisoner but suggested that the pardon be sought from Gov. Ross Barnett so as not to set a precedent for the board. Burton, serving six months and a $17 fine on petty larceny, had cut down a Negro vagrant who attempted to hang himself in the jail last week and they stayed with the man around the clock for three days at the hospital. Price said he had to provide a man on three eight-hour shifts it would have cost $30 a day. The board said it didn't want to get into that interpretation on working off time and referred it to the governor.

W.H. Hickerson, Jr.

William Henry Hickerson, Jr., resident of Bay St. Louis for the past 17 years, died at his South Beach Blvd. home Sunday morning.

Mr. Hickerson, a member of George Washington Lodge No. 65, F and AM; the Grand Confraternity of Louisiana, A.A.S.R.M., and Jacques Temple, is survived by his daughter, Dr. Thora Cromwell of Oxford, Miss.; sister, Mrs. Rebecca H. Randolph of Bay St. Louis; Mrs. Harry Raynor of Bogalusa and Mrs. LeVina Ables of New Orleans.

Funeral services were Tuesday morning in New Orleans with interment in Hope Memorial.

(Board attorney Luten M. Gex can tell us when he comes to.)
Gex, when he arrived: "Oh, Coast Counties have more money than the others. I'm certain you can do it. It's the best kind of advertising."
Hubbard: "Well, we should be able to do something about it."
Dean: "Shouldn't we be getting some money (for the school fund) in January?"
Ladner: "Yes."
Dean: "Well, why didn't we?"
Gex: "Oh, no. You can't get someone until you have money. You can go hunting for no bullseye."
With that the matter was dropped for the time being.

Word to holiday shoppers

Warning on schemes to snare Yule trade

The season to be merry is also the season to be wary, according to Changing Times, which warns holiday shoppers to be alert for the following schemes to snare Christmas trade.

—The price tag that's a fake. "It usually has two prices: one that says 'worth X dollars' or 'value X dollars' or 'list price, X dollars' the other that is the 'reduced' or ' slashed' or 'bargain' selling price." Nine times out of ten, you can be sure the whole thing is a phony."

—The guarantee that means nothing. "It doesn't tell you who guarantees the item, how long it is guaranteed for, whether all or part of the item is covered, or precisely what recourse you have in case your buy turns sour. A guarantee should be written down and be precise in all these details."

—The "bait" ad. "It usually offers some great bargain that isn't there when you get to the store. If that happens, walk out. Don't let the clerk switch you to some other item about which you know nothing."

—The purchase contract that's asurious. "Either the items are in small print or the contract is left blank when you sign it. Later, you can be held up for an exorbitant credit charge or a price in excess of

Jaycees seek DSA candidates
For the third consecutive year, Bay St. Louis Jaycees have launched a search for the area's outstanding young men to receive the Jaycee Distinguished Service Award (DSA) at their semi-annual awards and installation banquet Saturday, Jan. 12, according to Gerald Cox, DSA chairman.
Any man between the ages of 21 and 35 is eligible, Cox said. The general public is urged to submit nominations by writing the award not being limited to Jaycees. The steps for submitting nominations may be obtained from Cox.
Deadline for submitting nominations which are to be mailed to Cox at Box 325, Bay St. Louis, is 12 o'clock noon, Jan. 10. Last year's winner was Tom Logue, Hancock General Hospital administrator, while E. J. Marenco, local Tom's Peanut distributor, was first recipient of the award. Both are former presidents of the local Jaycee Club.
The winner will be selected on the basis of contributions to the general community welfare, evidence of leadership ability, and evidence of personal or business progress.
The banquet will also honor Jaycees who have made outstanding contributions, install new officers and celebrate local founders day. The chapter will be three years old Jan. 13. Featured also will be Bosses' Night to honor the bosses of all Jaycees, and the naming of an outstanding local man who will be presented with an appreciation certificate.

At Waveland

As we go to press, only a scant few shopping days remain before St. Nick is scheduled to arrive for his annual visit and we hope this finds our readers in somewhat better shape preparation-wise than is your reporter at this moment—in fact as we're writing our mind is on a million things we should be doing—ugh! Every year we plan to pick up a few gifts each month beginning say, about the middle of July (isn't that a revolting idea?) imagine selecting gifts when the mercury hovers near the 100 degree mark) —so it remains just a notion and Christmas Eve finds us desperately rushing around picking up last minute items and frantically wrapping gifts well into the early morning hours—oh well, maybe next year we'll really carry out these noble intentions—so much for what hasn't been done and on into news of the week:

General caused excitement

The widely heralded arrival of the General, an antique locomotive, more colorful (literally) than published caused the most excitement locally since the burning of Charlie Carter's grocery—the largest number of people toured the car and engine in Bay St. Louis than anywhere else of this size along the Coast and a number rode in the quaint coaches—Jessie and Parnell McKoy and Virginia Wagner were among those who entered in the Pass and arrived to be greeted by the enthusiastic mob in Bay St. Louis. . . the spectacle also brought out about half of Waveland bright and early Saturday morning (and 9:45 IS EARLY on Saturday)—Scrambling down to the platform at Waveland Avenue depot were Bessie De Blanc and most of the small DeBlancs; Baby Love Bourgeois and came of her grandchildren, (son-in-law Jimmy Parsons of Mobile was also along in an executive capacity,) the bosses, Jean and Red Glass, preny Prima Donna Thomas and escort, Ada Edel, Ann Porter, John Dumborino—Mayor Garfield Laidner officially welcomed the entourage—others braving a brisk northerly breeze were Elaine Davis and Ray Borgeas, Isabel Villars, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nelson, Mr. Joe Dumaine, Beulah and Sidney Bourgeois, Ruby and Leroy Bourgeois, Fred Bourgeois, Roger Borgeas, Buddy Dufour, etc., etc.

Sorry, no Santa at St. Clare's

We've been asked by the Altar Society of St. Clare's to announce that the annual Christmas party will not be held this year due to the fact that the Parish Hall is being used for masses during rebuilding of the church. The party will take place as usual next year—so just tell the kiddies that St. Clare's Santa found himself without a place to land but will have lots of gifts for them December '63.

The fine bug continues to hit most painfully—some more recent victims are Dot Weathers, Jim Mayfield and Gerri Blanchard—Laryngitis is another annoyingly prevalent ailment and anyone who happened to talk to yours truly on the phone next week doesn't have to be told that I had a lulu of a case—hear that 'Big John' Rutherford was a fellow sufferer as were Jane Mollere and Wesley Dora.

Bay side of the news

Happy birthday Jack Laidner—the occasion, Dec. 6, coincided with the Bay High football banquet so after this festivity the boys took candles off the tables and sang Happy Birthday to You in his honor. We're very sorry to hear that Charles Hays was rushed to Hancock General last Thursday—hope he's now well on the road to recovery. Jenny Bourgeois is one busy lady—she's thoroughly enjoying her cosmetic sales work also she took a few hours off to do a little Christmas shopping with her sister Josephine Cicoppi (hope that's the way it's spelled) Saturday. Am afraid we'll be losing Andre Arceneaux to either the movies or tv if there happen to be talent scouts around. . . his performance in the Bad Seed brought raves from everyone and his portrayal of a hopeful shotgun bride searching for Tom Logue had everyone who attended the Rotary Club banquet last Wednesday night in stitches—Joe Kern also made quite a hit as the mystery guest to puzzle a tv imitative panel. . . Am Ashman's voice helped make the deception complete.

More birthday greetings—Gertrude Stanton received a very fancy bicycle on the big day, Saturday, Dec. 6—hear that she plans to use this mode of transportation to and from Christ Episcopal Day School! Guess this should come under the 'later than you think department' anyway we're very sorry to hear that Jack Kramer suffered a twisted ankle while of all things, doing the twist! Leona and Eddie Marquez took off for the Broadwater Beach last Monday night where they joined Leona's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Shaver for cocktails and dinner. Another of her sisters, Yvonne (Mrs. Mike) Rogers enjoyed a well earned weekend vacation with the Marquez family. . . the trip was in the way of a bonus as her fifth child, (the second born in less than one year) little Kevin Patrick arrived on Oct. 15, so pappa baby sat and mamma relaxed!

Complaint dept.

With parking space at such a premium in many locations there are some who appear to take a good deal of pride in occupying just as many feet as is possible—one gentleman took first prize, however, by spreading his blue Cadillac in such a manner that it was absolutely impossible for anyone else to park even near the Waveland Postoffice Saturday. A couple of runners-up blocked the entrance to the drug store effectively, but don't think the PO feat will be duplicated any time soon unless it's with a Greyhound bus! Showing a little consideration for fellow drivers is not only common

Alvin Laidner, Jr. notes 7th birthday

Twenty guests were present when Alvin Laidner, Jr., celebrated his seventh birthday at the Clermont Harbor home of his parents Dec. 9. Christmas decorations were used and the large cake was trimmed in red and green. Plastic Santa Clauses were used as favors. Kenny Selazian and Scott Vogt were winners of games.

AT HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE - Mrs. Howard Adams poses amidst a dazzling array of Christmas decorations displayed at Lorraine Florist's first annual Yuletide open house last Wednesday night which was attended by a large audience.

Ideas galore for Yule decor

Lorraine's Flower Shop was transformed into a winter wonderland for its first official Christmas open house last Wednesday. Unbelievably gorgeous arrangements were everywhere—living flowers, artificial and dried mistletoe, festive trees, wreaths—in fact just about anyone one could imagine in the way of holiday decorations were in evidence. Nancy Adams was as lovely as the orchid planned to the shoulder of her most becoming black frock. Some of those admiring the surroundings and enjoying fruit cake, punch and/or coffee were Dot Russell and daughter Dale, Mrs. James Evans, Marguerite Kenney, and many, many more but we were too busy taking pictures to really take notes as to who was present.

All Fun After Forty members are reminded of an important meeting at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Pine Burr. Final plans for a party to be held either Dec. 28 or 29 will be made and advance tickets will be distributed.

Animal notes

Mrs. R. K. McKean whose rather prolific dog, Beauty, was the subject of a column about this time last year, has once more come to us for help. In the other instance the puppies were given away, but poor Beauty managed to survive on her own during her mistress' absence—however, she has once again reproduced—this time it's seven lovely puppies and they are available for adoption. . . Mrs. McKean also needs a home for Beauty as she is leaving for Baltimore around Jan. 15. Any-one interested in Beauty, the puppies or both may see them at Mrs. McKean's home on Agnes Lane, Bay St. Louis.

More birthday wishes—Greetings to A. R. Jenkins, better known as Slim and to Louise Lynch who celebrated on Dec. 11, and Dec. 9, respectively. Master Chip Blanchard cut quite a figure in his snappy Kern School uniform in church last Sunday.

Tiny Sylvia Jeanne Souler took her first trip at the tender age of one month and a few days—she and mamma Bea went to Poplarville Sunday to visit Bee's family, the Robert Laidners.

Gerald Price, Jr., enjoyed a weekend trip to Parchman—the purpose was of course dove hunting but the chief deputy managed to visit just about everyone who has been sent to that corrective institution from Hancock County, most are apparently behaving very well under the circumstances—we'd love to see one former hijacker placidly driving a mule wagon! After a wait of about two weeks, the school pictures were distributed Monday morning.

The Gold Jays met St. John's of Gulfport in a basketball game Tuesday night at SJA's gym.

Fred K. Lane, a chemical engineer, from Hercules Powder Co., in Hattiesburg presented a lecture and experiments on viscosity to the chemistry, biology and science classes Tuesday morning.

Accompanists will be Mrs. Carl Smith and Harry Shatnick.

Mrs. Beyer named heart fund leader

Mrs. C. R. Beyer of Bay St. Louis will again head Hancock County's one-month drive to raise funds for Mississippi's year-round fight against heart disease. She will mobilize the community's resources in a concentrated 28-day campaign which opens Feb. 1 and climaxes on Heart Sunday, Feb. 24, Mrs. Beyer's appointment was announced last week by John Hampton Stearns of Jackson, state chairman, and J. E. Kizzire of Gulfport, district chairman of the Heart Fund.

In accepting the county heart fund chairmanship for the ninth consecutive year, Mrs. Beyer points out that heart disease isn't selective in its victims but hits old and young alike to cause more than half of all deaths in this state. "Heart and blood vessel diseases reaped 72 Hancock County lives last year," she declared. "That's why we feel that people in this community will more than meet their fair share of Mississippi's 1963 Heart Fund of $205,000."

This year, 46 per cent of all heart dollars invested in the Mississippi Heart program is being spent for research and training. Of the anticipated $205,000 state 1963 Heart Fund, 49 per cent is budgeted for research while 38 per cent will go to public and professional education and to community service in behalf of heart patients and their families.

Went to extend an extra warm welcome to an old friend who with attractive wife and children recently moved to Pass Christian. Helen and Fred Helm had lived in Houston, Texas until months ago when they were transferred to the Crescent which was just too near the Coast to resist—Fred is an old friend of more years ago than we'll admit—but until we met again at the Sam Blanchard's Sunday, the last time I saw Fred, he was playing football at Vanderbilt University under the not too tender hand of one Red Sanders! Mamie and Max Gianelloni who've been friends of the Helms' for several years brought about the reunion and in all fairness, we must add—it's inconceivable that time could remain as unchanged by the ravages of time as has Fred.

Mrs. R. W. Betz entertained weekend guests by lunch at Haverly's Saturday.

Tennessee Gas personnel had a wonderful time at their annual Christmas party Saturday night—Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Williams, Mrs. and Lawrence Colby, Mary and Gray Wade and Cleo and Joe were among those enjoying steaks about three inches thick. . . . looked good enough to eat raw! Bessie and Lester allowed us to peek in the kitchen as preparations for the fete were underway—didn't get even a small sample.

Mrs. Ray Gordon is in line for belated birthday greetings having celebrated last Wednesday, Dec. 5.

Julie Markey will surprise husband Dave with a lovely new car when he arrives home from his latest voyage today, Sunday. It's his birthday gift to her, but he hasn't seen it yet!

SJA record suffers with Jo Mary hurt

Handicapped by the loss of their star player, St. Joseph Academy dropped two basketball decisions last week. The Gold Jays were downed 36-28 Thursday by Hancock North Central and lost to St. Joseph of Baton Rouge Saturday.

North Central's Hawkettes beat the Gold Jays behind the shooting of forward Brenda Stockstill. SJA was led in scoring by Susie Rhodes, while Jane Ferry, Mitzi Blache and Ellen Colson all turned in excellent defensive performances.

Forward Jo Mary Artigues, SJA's leading scorer for the first few games of the season, was injured in the game and will be lost to the team for an indefinite time. Jo Mary scored 36 points in one game last week and her loss is sorely felt.

The North Central JV also emerged victorious over SJA, winning 31-19.

In Baton Rouge Saturday afternoon, the locals couldn't get their attack going and lost 39-18. The starting guard trio again did an excellent job for Mrs. Joseph Colson's sextet.

YES, IT'S ANOTHER DANTAGNAN SALE—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Chevris of Bay St. Louis are the new owners of this delightful home surrounded by towering oak trees on spacious grounds at 446 Ballentine St., formerly owned by Mrs. Roberta McNeil. The sales transaction was handled by Dantagnan Realty Co., represented in this transaction by Mrs. Edwina Mogabgab. (Adv.)

To set the record straight . . .

WHY MISSISSIPPI POWER IS OPPOSING CONSTRUCTION OF A FEDERALLY FINANCED GENERATING PLANT & TRANSMISSION SYSTEM

Recent articles, news releases, and advertisements appearing as statements and releases by the president of South Mississippi Electric Power Association, a Federally-financed REA super co-op, have publicly attacked Mississippi Power Company for opposing construction of their proposed $16-million generating plant and transmission system. Power produced by this plant would be sold to four REA distributing co-ops who now buy their power at low wholesale rates from Mississippi Power Company and Mississippi Power and Light Company. They are Southern Pine, Dixie, Pearl River Valley and Singing River Electric Power Associations.

Mississippi Power Company has merely exercised its legal right to show before the Public Service Commission that public convenience and necessity will not be served by the proposed project.

This issue is not just a legal matter but also directly involves the pocketbook and future well-being of every Mississippian and especially the consumers of the four REA distributing co-ops proposing to purchase power from the super co-op. Listed below are seven of many reasons why this project is unnecessary and, in fact, a waste of taxpayers' money. All REA customers and other thoughtful citizens should consider the facts carefully.

1. The proposed $16-million expenditure of taxpayers' money will not provide electric power to any person who is not now or who otherwise could not receive electric service.
2. The electric power produced by the super-co-op will cost much more, than the present cost of electricity purchased from Mississippi Power Company and Mississippi Power & Light Company, from whom the distributing co-ops have received all their electric service since they were organized in the late 1930's, and much more than such cost would be under current offers for continued purchase.
3. Service from the proposed plant will be far less reliable than that provided from the modern, high-voltage interconnected systems of the Mississippi Power Company and Mississippi Power & Light Company.
4. Taxpayers of the state and nation will have to lend the full $16-million to build the original plant and subsidize the cost of this loan by making up the difference between the two per cent interest the cooperatives pay the U. S. Treasury for loans and the four per cent it costs our Federal Government to borrow money with which to make the loan.
5. The super co-op has testified that if this first plant is permitted, additional funds will promptly and regularly be sought from the public treasury to expand this and other co-op facilities.
6. Under Mississippi law (Sec. 9700, Miss. Code 1942) this super co-op "shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes, and such association shall be exempt from franchise, privilege, net income and other excise taxes imposed by the State or any of its political subdivisions"; it is also exempt from paying sales taxes on what it buys, including equipment and fuel, to build and operate this proposed plant. (Sec. 10116). The taxpayers of Mississippi will have to make up the taxes lost by these exemptions.
7. Electric power is a necessary part of our daily lives and its availability in abundant and economical supply is vital to Mississippi's future growth and development. The vital to Mississippi's future growth and development, has REA super co-op, by its loan agreement and mortgage, has surrendered to the REA Administrator in Washington the right for him to approve or disapprove many of the most important aspects of its operation, such as its electric rates and selection of its management and supervisory personnel. The only jurisdiction the Mississippi Public Service Commission has over the super co-op is in granting permission to build the plant and transmission system. The rates of the super co-op to the member co-ops are not subject to regulation by any state or Federal regulatory body—but only by the Administrator. The same Administrator, appointed by the President, also has complete control over the availability of additional funds for the super co-op. Mississippians should keep to an absolute minimum the exposure to Federal dictation and interference in their affairs, both political and economic.

Harry hears ... As bowl scene shapes up

All of the major bowl game participants have now been decided and Saturday afternoon marks the beginning of the "bowl season", although several minor post-season clashes have already been played. The Liberty Bowl Saturday afternoon finds Oregon State facing Villanova in a cross-country match. Oregon State is the favorite in the Philadelphia event, chiefly because of their Heisman Trophy award winner Terry Baker. Baker, a quarterback, passes and runs with equal ability.

We think this year's Liberty Bowl is a mis-match, and have to go with Oregon State by at least a pair of touchdowns.

Miami and Nebraska, pitted against each other in the GoCom Bowl at New York, should provide a better game. The Hurricanes have George Mira, one of the most exciting of the many exciting quarterbacks around in 1962, while Nebraska should be a formidable foe.

If the game is played, and as late as Tuesday both teams were threatening to pull out because of unsatisfactory financial arrangements, we'll pick Miami to win by about six points.

SEC members in thick of it

Three Southeastern Conference teams will play Jan. 1 in bowl games. Only the Rose Bowl, of the four New Year's Day Classics, is minus an SEC representative.

Mississippi, SEC champ, will play Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl, which we expect to be the best. The Rebels finished their first undefeated season in quite some time and will be favored by a slim margin over the Porkers. We don't know how many tickets are in circulation but the game should be well worth seeing.

Louisiana State is involved in another interesting battle. Texas will furnish LSU's opposition in the 1963 edition of the Cotton Bowl. The Steers tripped Ole Miss in this year's contest but aren't quite as strong.

Alabama is in the Orange Bowl, playing Oklahoma, a tremendously improved ball club since the start of the season. We can't help but believe, however, that Oklahoma is too weak to cope with the powerful Tide. Time will tell.

The Rose Bowl matches the top two teams in the final Associated Press Poll, Southern California and Wisconsin, and for a change has a top attraction.

Florida and Georgia Tech are other SEC teams entered in bowl games—the Gators will play in the Gator Bowl December 29, while Tech is entered in next week's Bluebonnet Bowl.

Leland Mitchell, native of Kiln, is leading powerful Mississippi State in early basketball action. Mitchell poured in 34 points in a Saturday night Maroon victory, and must be considered a distinct All-America possibility, especially if the Maroons continue to remain high in the national polls.

Golf fans will be glad to know that in addition to the usual big tournaments to be televised, a series of matches between Arnold Palmer and South African Gary Player, two of golf's "big three", will be seen nationwide beginning next month. The winter "Pro Bowlers' Tour" will also be seen across the country via tv in a short time.

Bay High's Teddo Thomas became the first local griddler to sign with a college squad, inking a grant-in-aid scholarship pact with Louisiana State Saturday soon after the opening of the recruiting season. Thomas was the Gulf Coast Conference's line-man-of-the-year, and if he adds some more weight to his 190-pound frame he could become a good player at LSU.

We got our first look at Hancock North Central Saturday night in Pass Christian, and although the Hawks were as cold as ice shooting-wise, we had to be impressed with their over-all play. Coach Billy Sills' quintet has more class this season than the last two years, and should go a long way before the campaign closes.

On the pro football scene

Green Bay and New York appear headed toward a rematch of last year's National Football League championship game, won by the Packers 37-0. The Giants, desperately wanting revenge, have clinched the NFL's Eastern Division title, while the Packers need a win over last-place Los Angeles to claim the Western championship. A loss to the Rams at L. A. by the Packers would mean Detroit could tie the Packers with a win over the Chicago Bears, one of the league's hottest teams.

In the other pro league, the American Football League, the Dallas Texas have won the Western title and will play either Boston or Houston for league crown. The Oilers hold a half-game edge over Boston and can assure a spot in the play-off with a victory over New York's Titans in New York Saturday afternoon, ABC-TV (Channels 3, 12, and 13) will carry the Oilers-Titan game nationwide. A Houston defeat coupled with a Boston win would give the Patriots first place.

Of all things, we hate to complain to or about bowling secretaries. This writer has held the laborious time-consuming job several times. We could, however, appreciate having all bowling league scores in our office Monday if at all possible, and no later than 5 p.m. Tuesday. We like to publish bowling scores—it pleases sponsors and individuals as well to see their names in the paper—but we'll be unable to run any scores reported after the above-mentioned time.

3 Rocks named to all MCC

St. Stanislaus has placed three men on the Mississippi All-Catholic Conference football squad, selected by the coaches of the loop's three teams.

Fullback Barry Roanberg, guard Paul Aucott, and center Mike Mashburn were selected to the 11-men team from Stanislaus.

Roanberg was the Rockaway offensive leader in the team's three victories. The rugged powerhouse was the mainstay of Coach Billy Murphy's single-wing offense.

Aucott and Mashburn were among the defensive standouts throughout the season for the Rocks, and did excellent work as blockers.

Six Rockaways made the honorable-mention list and Curtis Mathews, tackle Larry Fee and Howard Robichaux, guard Mike Andrews, and backs Doc

Rhodes and Lenny Aucott. St. Aloysius of Vicksburg, 47-0 winners over the Rocks in the league championship playoff game, placed five men on the squad, and Notre Dame contributed three.

All three SSC players on the all-star team are seniors. The Rocks, in their first season under Murphy's coaching, compiled a 3-7 record although winning three of four home games.

Jimmy Favre pulls Hawks to victory

Jimmy Favre's two free throws in the final half-minute of play gave Hancock North Central a thrilling come-from-behind 47-45 victory over a fighting Pass Christian quintet Saturday night in the Pass. The Hawks played an excellent game for two quarters before falling to the undefeated Pass girls 48-34.

The Hawks, generally considered one of the strongest teams in the state, played a good floor game but just couldn't hit the basket. North Central fell behind 12-9 at the first quarter break, trailed 27-24 at halftime, and 32-29 after three periods. The Hawks were kept scoreless for seven consecutive minutes in the third quarter when Pass High built an eight-point lead.

Coach Billy Sills' experienced Hawks finally caught the Pirates with about two minutes left and it was nip-and-tuck the rest of the way. Favre gave North Central a three-point advantage with a foul shot with 30 seconds remaining but the Pirates scored a quick field goal. Favre, fouled again, added another free throw with 10 seconds to be played, but missed a second opportunity, giving Pass a chance to go the score. A wild pass ended Pirates hopes, however.

All-conference forward Berlin Lachner scored 12 points to lead North Central but was kept in check most of the way. Favre added 11 and Lionel Hoda 10. Pass High's Dale Moran, the game's outstanding performer, led both teams with 17 points and did a tremendous job on the four elected to yacht club board

William P. Bosworth, Henry Baltar, Dr. Richard Reeves and David Treutle were elected to the board of governors of Bay-Waveland Yacht Club at its annual membership meeting Saturday night.

Election of officers for the coming year is slated at the regular board meeting Dec. 14. After the social hour proposals were discussed for refinancing purchase of the property but no decisions were reached.

Tigers continue unbeaten

Before the largest local crowd of the still-young basketball season, Bay High spluttered to a 52-44 victory over Pass Christian Friday night in the Tiger gym. The Tigerettes were handed their third straight setback in the opener of the twin-bill, falling before the Pass High lasses 51-37.

The Tigers won their fourth victory without a defeat in the feature game, although playing their worst ball of the season. The Pirates took a 12-10 first quarter lead and upped the margin to seven points in the second period before Bay High scored 10 in a row for a 25-21 half-punt advantage. The Tigerettes pulled away to a 40-30 lead entering the final stanza.

Junior guard Leroy Luke became the fourth different player to lead Coach Wilmer Seymour's Bengals in scoring in the four triumphs, chalking up 16 points. Sophomore forward Ross Maurigi was the only Tiger in double figures with 14. Center Dale Moran led Pass High with 14.

Bay High resumed action last night with a boys' game and JV contest against arch-rival St. Stanislaus in the Bay High gym. Both the boys and girls will see action tonight in the St. Martin Invitational Tournament.

Chas. Necaise paces North Bay victory

Charles Necaise scored 35 points in the final round of the Logtown Elementary School Basketball Invitational to pace his North Bay team-mates to a 59-29 victory over Picayune last Saturday night.

For the four games of the tournament, Charles racked up 106 points while his nephew, Mike Necaise, tallied 57 points in four games for North Bay. Charles incidentally, is the younger brother of the famed Doug Necaise, former Hancock North Central star.

In the girls' finals, Logtown put up a staunch fight before bowing 17-16 to Pearl River Central.

Play opened Wednesday night with Logtown girls downing DeLisle 30-24 and the Logtown boys beating DeLisle 29-28. Thursday in the boys' division, Poplarville trounced North Central 40-30 and North Bay stopped Pearl River Central 37-21. Among the girls Pearl River Central defeated North Central 20-18 and North Bay won by forfeit over Poplarville.

Picayune boys beat St. Stanislaus College 37-19 Friday while North Bay upended Harrison Central 46-30 and Logtown topped Gulfview 27-18 while in girls' play Gulfview beat Harrison Central 22-18.

In Saturday's semi-finals, Logtown girls put out North Bay 30-21 while Pearl River Central advanced with a 22-14 win over Gulfview. Picayune beat Logtown 41-26 in the boys' play while North Bay ousted Poplarville 46-28.

Named for the all-tournament team for the girls were Sherrill Dean, Janice Lee, Myra Long, all of Logtown; Gail O'Quinn, Penny Sones and Miriam Fleming, all of PRC.

Making the boys' team were Shelton Bourgeois, Charles and Mike Necaise, North Bay; Michael Hayes, Lowell Broom, both of Picayune and C. J. Wyman, Logtown.

Janice Lee of Logtown scored 52 points in three games to top scoring by all girls in the event. C. J. Wyman of Logtown picked up 50 points in three games for the boys while Michael Hayes of Picayune got 47.

Guy Smith, Logtown coach, commended the orderly crowds attending the tournament and expressed appreciation to Coach Ezell Lee of North Central for officiating. He singled out Charles Necaise for high praise saying that in 16 years of association with basketball Charles was the best eighth grade athlete he had ever seen.

TIGER JOINS TIGERS - Teddo Thomas, Bay High School senior who won all-conference lineman honors in the Gulf Coast Conference this fall, signs grant-in-aid football scholarship with Louisiana State University's Tigers Saturday in presence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Thomas, and Clarence (Pop) Prange, standing left, of LSU athletic department.

Rocks dump Kern for 1st cage win

St. Stanislaus won its first basketball victory of the season Saturday night in convincing fashion, trouncing Kern School of Pass Christian 50-29. The Rockchaw JVs clobbered the inexperienced Kern JV 80-8 in a preliminary contest.

Ned Heath led Stanislaus to its easy varsity triumph over Kern, starting his first year of cage play. Heath scored 14 points as the Rocks opened up a 10-1 first quarter lead and never trailed. Stanislaus led 25-6 at halftime and 50-29 after three periods.

Stanislaus was eliminated from the Gulfport Invitational Tournament by last year's Big Eight champions, the Hattiesburg Tigers, in a first-round game last Thursday. The Tigers won 61-41, and went on to reach the finals before bowing to Gulfport.

Guard Nodie Lader led Brother Ralph's hoopsters at Gulfport, scoring 13 points. Center Waymon Carr scored 10, and forward Curtis Matherne added eight markers. Hattiesburg led 35-15 at halftime.

The Rockchaws returned to action last night against Bay High at the Bay High gym, will meet Notre Dame in Biloxi Friday night, and play Our Lady of Victories at Pascagoula in the Stanislaus gym next Tuesday.

Hawk squads topple Gulfview, Biloxi

It was a prosperous night Tuesday at Hancock North Central as the junior high cagers downed Gulfview while the JV's and varsity took the toll of Biloxi High.

Berlin Ladner, 6-2 forward, had one of his best nights of the season as he scored 27 points to lead the Hawks all the way. Richard Coates and Eugene Ladner added 11 each while Folscher was high for the visitors with 12.

By quarters North Central led 13-7, 29-15 and 42-26 as the Hawks got back in the groove with their free wagon style of ball. They've been hampered recently by opponents playing freeze type of basketball.

Wendell Ladner who also plays on the varsity occasionally led the B squad to a 41-29 win over Biloxi as he scored 12 points. Wallace was tops for Biloxi with 10.

Brenda Hudson scored 18 points to give the junior high girls their 23-21 win over Gulfview School. M. McCordie was high for Gulfview with 11.

The junior high boys also beat Gulfview, 36-20, Kenny Malley getting 14 markers while Barnes led Gulfview with six. Next contest for the Hawks is Friday against Holy Cross at New Orleans.

New boys scheduled to see action for the first time include Rodney Healey and Emile Bourgeois of Waveland; Danny Henry, Ernest Noto and Nicky Kingston, all of Bay St. Louis.

penses through December was sought by the board. This will make $46,000 borrowed this fiscal year compared to $64,000 last year.

Postponed for later action was a request by Paul J. Raynaud that the Gideon Society be permitted to distribute youth testaments to students desiring them. To Raynaud's comment that this was the only city school system on the coast where the society did not distribute their Bibles, McCulloch replied that perhaps Bay High was in a somewhat different situation due to the large Roman Catholic population here. In addition he pointed out that any active support of any religion would be unlawful.

President Robert Hamilton stated that before any approval could be given the board would have to know how the Gideons proposed making the distribution and suggested that perhaps the board might have to insist that the Bibles only be given to students whose parents had given written consent. Raynaud said he would present the matter again at the next board meeting and meantime would find out the exact method of distribution planned.

The superintendent showed the board scroll he had received signed by Lt. Gov. Paul Johnson, presiding officer of the State senate and by Speaker Walter Silvers, presiding officer of the House, setting forth the text of House Concurrent Resolution No. 14 congratulating the Bay High football team, Coach Lance Lumpkin, Ass't. Coach Wilmer Seymour, Superintendent McCulloch and Principal Donald Caldwell for winning the Gulf Coast Conference championship.

McCulloch also reported that this week the system had to start using the school bus usually kept in reserve for regular transportation of students due to increased enrollment.

The board also approved transportation claim docket Nos. 34 through 43 and district maintenance and other costs docket Nos. 228 through 274 before adjourning until Jan. 14, 1963.

Other officers elected were Frank Bello, senior warden; Harley Ruffin, junior warden; Austin Baxter, treasurer succeeding Lamar Otis who served for many years; Henry Otis, re-elected secretary; Ora Holden, tiler; Willie Ruffin, senior deacon, and August Holden, junior warden.

Susie Rhodes scored 27 points to lead a revitalized St. Joseph Academy sextet to a 53-32 win over St. John's of Gulfport Tuesday night. See Porter added 11 points as the Gold Jays led all the way and held St. John's scoreless in the final quarter.

Listed as outstanding on defense were Ellen Colson and Jane Ferry.

The SJA junior high squad also came through with a victory, 26-18, as Marlene Morel chalked up 12 points and Susan Reinhardt seven. Toni Ladner and Mary DeBlanc starred on defense.

The Gold Jays drew St. John's again as their opponent of the tournament at Gulfport last night.

TB seen high in teen-agers

Prevalence of tuberculosis among teen-agers was noted by Dr. John Levens, county health officer, in a survey completed this week as the TB association's annual Christmas seal drive is in progress.

While it is not in epidemic form by any means, Dr. Levens noted there are more teen-ager cases here percentage-wise than elsewhere and urged young people to take advantage of free chest x-rays the next time the mobile unit is here.

There were 12 TB cases on the county records this year, nine of them new and three in the state TB hospital. Thirty-five per cent of the cases are being cared for in homes, some cases of children preferring that to confinement at Sanatorium. Meanwhile, Mrs. Theodore Thomas, chairman of the Christmas seal drive, outlined the campaign as the sole fund raising means for many free TB services and asked anyone who did not receive seals to call her at HO706193.

Geraci to head Logtown Masons

Salvador Geraci was elected master of the Diamond Masonic Lodge at Logtown Monday night succeeding Robert Smith. Plans also were discussed at the meeting for the Christmas tree party for children of the area at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 22 at Logtown School.

Other officers elected were Frank Bello, senior warden; Harley Ruffin, junior warden; Austin Baxter, treasurer succeeding Lamar Otis who served for many years; Henry Otis, re-elected secretary; Ora Holden, tiler; Willie Ruffin, senior deacon, and August Holden, junior warden.
